

The FCC should leave Wisconsin's no call list and policies as they now stand. I do not want to go back to spending my days answering unwanted phone calls. We also shouldn't have to pay for extra phone services just to block unwanted calls.